

Urban Forestry Summit 2006

Thursday, May 11, 2006

Houston Arboretum & Nature Center
4501 Woodway Dr., Houston, TX 77024

A one-day workshop for Community Leaders, Municipal Officials, Public Works, Parks, and Planning Staff, Home Owner and Neighborhood Association Members, Residential and Commercial Developers, and Concerned Citizens.

Measuring the Economic Benefit of Trees • Incorporating Trees into Flood Control Structures • Preserving Trees during Residential and Commercial Development • The Role of Trees in Quality of Life Initiatives • The Importance of Tree Inventories • Developing an Effective Tree Ordinance • Funding Your Tree Planting Project

Registration Form

Name

Organization

Address

City, State, Zip

Phone Number

E-mail

Please RSVP by May 5th to Sandra McKnight at 713.993.2461 or smcknight@h-gac.com.

Please Note: The Urban Forestry Summit is open to the public and requires a $25 registration fee. Lunch will be provided. We accept payment by check and cash. Checks should be made out to the Houston Galveston Area Council. You can mail your check, along with the completed registration form, to Chuck Wemple, Houston-Galveston Area Council, P.O. Box 22777, Houston, TX 77227-2777. Or you can bring the check and registration form with you to the Summit. We will also be accepting cash payments at the door.

For more information on the Urban Forestry Summit, visit us on the web at <http://www.houstonregionalforest.org/Events/Summit2006> or call Chuck Wemple at 713.993.4514 or cwemple@h-gac.com